

Congratulations to Connie Lopez

On December 16, 1997, tribal member Connie (Mercier) Lopez was awarded a Certificate of Recognition of her twenty-five years of service in the Government of the United States of America.

Connie works for the BIA as a teacher at Santa Rosa Boarding Day School on the Papago Indian Agency at Sells, Arizona. The Tribe wishes to congratulate Connie, as it is only through the unselfish service of dedicated employees, such as Connie, that the Bureau can achieve its mission. Connie is the oldest daughter of Darrel and Ruth Mercier.

Exhibit to arrive

A much-awaited exhibition of a bronzed basket will take place on Tuesday, March 10, beginning at 1 p.m. at the Community Center. The basket is coming to Grand Ronde before permanently being placed in a rail depot exhibit. Tri-Met hopes that the exhibit will be viewed by tribal members and the community.

Annabelle (Peachie) Hamm and Marie Schmidt requested that this basket be exhibited at Grand Ronde. The basket was most recently displayed at the Hillsboro Light Rail Station. Peachie may be reached at (503) 623-1080 to answer any questions.

Under the General Committee Ordinance section (f) MEMBERSHIP: Only tribal members and staff may serve as voting members on the committees. All committee members must physically reside within the tribal Six (6) County Service Area during their term of office. In addition, (A): Individuals may serve on only one committee at a time, provided, however, an individual may serve on the Pow-wow or the Elders' Committee and one other committee at the same time.

Under section (k) CONFLICTS OF INTEREST: No committee shall have more than one immediate family member serving in a voting capacity at one time on that committee. No committee member may vote on any action directly involving a member of his or her immediate family. A committee member may take part in discussion and count toward a quorum regarding action involving a member of his or her family. Immediate family members include the natural father, natural mother, adoptive mother, adoptive father, daughter, son, spouse, person in spousal relationship, brother, sister, stepbrother and stepsister.

Under the Pow-wow Committee Ordinance section (c) Committee Established; Membership 2. The Committee shall have a minimum of five (5) voting members, at least one (1) of whom is a Tribal Council member. Any number of staff members may serve on the Committee at one time. The Tribal Council at its option may appoint more than five (5) voting members if it deems necessary. In addition, 4. The members shall be appointed by the Tribal Council. 5. The Tribal Council shall make the annual appointment of members to the Committee no later than the end of November. There is no limit on the number of terms a member may serve. Further, 8. The Committee may establish sub-committees when and if it deems necessary.
