

REJOICING IN THE SEASON

Right: The Tribe's annual Christmas party and dinner was held on Dec. 19. With a little help from Language Specialist Tony Johnson, tribal children were able to sing Christmas carols in both English and Chinook jargon to the family and friends gathered at Grand Ronde Elementary School.

Below: The Elders had a Christmas Party of their own at the mealsite where they exchanged gifts and visited with family.

Bid announcement for road maintenance

The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde, Natural Resources Division is accepting bid proposals for a two-year Road Maintenance Services Contract. The work will be performed on an on-call, as-needed basis. Road maintenance work will typically occur in a forested setting and consist of the following activities:

- Road-side brushing using a mechanical brush cutter.
- Grading and shaping roads using a motorized grader.
- Hauling and spreading patch rock using a loader, dump-truck, and grader.
- Clearing culverts, ditch lines, and road banks of debris using a backhoe and loader.

Sealed bids will be accepted until 1:00 P.M. on Tuesday, February 2, 1999.

The Natural Resources Division reserves the right to reject any and all bids, to waive technical defects in bidding, or negotiate with any unsuccessful bidder if no bid is awarded. For further information, contact Jeff Kuust, Logging and Transportation Coordinator, at (503) 879-2379 or 1-800-422-0232.

Holiday Greetings from The Grand Ronde Community

Take a drive by the Gaming Commission lawn where the Grand Ronde community holiday decorations are on display. If you have a suggestion for next year's location, please call Sheila Herber at 879-2492. A very special thank you to the following few people who took it upon themselves to volunteer their time this year: Mike Eisele, Kevin Mueller, and the Lake family (Dennis, Barbara, Winston and Seth).
