

Public safety meeting: May 17

A focus group is going to be held in Grand Ronde. The purpose is to gather input about public safety and concerns in the community. Yamhill County Sheriff's department is facilitating this event which will be held on Wednesday, May 17 from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Community Center.

For more information, please call Mary Alice Bowen at (503) 879-2060.

— Child Care Providers — Scholarships available for training

Child Care Information Services (CCIS) has scholarships available to Polk County child care providers to help subsidize training costs if you are unable to afford the training you seek. This funding can be put toward the cost of training or help to pay for a substitute provider to take over while you attend the training.

CCIS needs Polk County child care providers willing to provide care for children, while parents attend community classes.

For more information contact CCIS in Polk County at 623-0649.

Exhibit recounts Indian boarding school experience

The Oregon State Archives, located at 800 Summer Street NE in Salem, will host the exhibit "They Sacrificed for Our Survival: The Indian School Boarding School Experience," through May 8.

The exhibit includes stories of Indian boarding school survivors told in the oral tradition of their ancestors and through historical photographs and student artwork dating from the late 1800s through the 1950s. The photographs illustrate several of the large, off-reservation federal schools — Carlisle in Pennsylvania, Chilocco in Oklahoma, and Chemawa in Oregon — as well as mission schools in Washington and Idaho.

WANTED:

Women to create part-time business at home

The Venture Out program was designed with women like you in mind. Now, more than ever, homebased business ownership is a viable option for creating supplemental income. Turn the skills you possess, the hobbies you enjoy, or the trade you have inherited into an income generating business. And the best part is, you will not have to do this alone. With the help of ONABEN and the Tribe's business counselors, you can create a business.

Try one of the following business:

- pet sitting
- catering
- landscaping
- child or elder care
- alterations
- gift baskets
- cake decorating
- party/event planner
- photographer
- janitorial/carpet cleaner
- tutoring service
- handmade crafts

Venture Out is sponsored by the Tribe's Small Business Development, ONABEN, and the Office of Womens Business Ownership (OWBO).

For more information about Venture Out and a schedule of class dates and times please contact the Small Business department.

You may call:

Sheila Herber at (503) 879-2492, Barbara Lake at (503) 879-2476, or toll-free at 1-800-422-0232.

Dinner and child care will be provided during classes.
