

Royalty Looking for Your Support

The Grand Ronde Royalty girls are working to earn money to attend the Gathering of the Nations Pow-wow in Albuquerque, New Mexico in April. The girls are selling raffle tickets for $1 each or 6 for $5. Raffle items include Quasar 13 inch Color TV/VCR Combo with remote, a Pendleton blanket and a food basket. The raffle drawing will take place on Sunday, March 4 at the General Council meeting.

Royalty and their parents work very hard throughout the year to raise money to help cover their travel expenses to represent the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde at pow-wows. This year they have set a fundraising goal of $5,000. Thank you in advance for all your support.

If you would like to help the Grand Ronde Royalty earn money for their trip, you may purchase tickets from any of one them listed below:

Field Work Opportunities

The Nature Conservancy of Oregon's Internships and Seasonal Employment Opportunities are recruiting for short-term seasonal employment. The Nature Conservancy is committed to diversity in the work place, with particular emphasis in areas where minorities have been historically under-represented in environmental professions. Native Americans, Hispanic/Latinos, Asian/Pacific Islanders and African Americans are encouraged to apply for these positions.

The Nature Conservancy of Oregon is pleased to offer a limited number of short-term seasonal training opportunities to students in environmental studies or ecology fields of study. These students will receive school credit for applied, hands-on experience and the opportunity to work with ecologists and other professional staff. Students at all levels (including associates, undergraduates, graduates, etc.) are encouraged to contact The Nature Conservancy of Oregon.

For additional information about the The Nature Conservancy and the short-term opportunities that they offer, please visit their web site at www.tnc.org or contact them by phone at 503-230-0707, ext. 600.
