NATIVE AMERICAN PHILOSOPHIES A Spring 2001 Lecture Series

Members of the community are invited to come to the Oregon State University campus Wednesday evenings to learn from distinguished Native American writers and scholars, as they speak of what they most deeply believe about their place on earth, their relation to the natural world, their sources of strength and wisdom, the nature of time and place and spirit, and right ways of acting in communities, both biological and civic. Join them during the spring term for stories, music, and poetry, and university lectures and discussions — many kinds of wisdom, many ways of knowing. The lectures are also available as a 3-credit OSU course.

OPEN FOR COMMENT

Tribal Council Ordinance

The Tribal Council in consultation with the Tribal Attorney's Office has proposed amending the Tribal Council Ordinance to provide that the credit card policy set forth in the Tribal Council Ordinance, be amended. Section (k)(3)(B) is deleted and replaced with the following language:

"Allowable Expenses: Tribal credit cards may be used only for commercial transportation, hotel lodging, and meals with official guests of the Tribe. Individuals must request a travel advance for other meals and anticipated costs prior to traveling, provided, however, that if the individual is unable to obtain a travel advance before departing, he/she may use their Tribal credit card"

Section (k)(3)(D) of the Tribal Council Ordinance, as amended, would read as follows:

"Limit: The credit limit on each card shall be five thousand ($5,000) dollars"

The first reading of the proposed amendment to the Health Authority Ordinance was presented at the November 8, 2000, Tribal Council meeting.

For a copy of the proposed Ordinance amendments, please contact the Tribal Attorney's office at 503-879-2265. Tribal Council invites comment on the proposed amendments. Please send your comments to the Tribal Attorney's Office, 9615 Grand Ronde Road, Grand Ronde, OR 97347. Comments must be received by April 15, 2001.
