

Halloween Fun in Grand Ronde

Photos by Justin Phillips and Brent Merrill

USDA would like to thank all the hard workers at both of our warehouses. We would like to also thank our clients that jump right in to lend a helping hand packing boxes for our elders and other clients, you are greatly appreciated. Thank you to our Siletz and Salem ESP staff for providing workers for both of our warehouses. The magnitude of work is here but with the help we receive makes the load feel a bit lighter. We would like to wish everyone Happy Holidays!
