

Ice Skate Time

Tribal youth were treated to an evening of ice skating and a pizza party at the Sherwood Ice Arena recently. Around 50 kids from Grand Ronde and the surrounding communities joined in the fun. The evening was sponsored by the Grand Ronde Tribal Youth Social Services Program.

► Caden Leno, age 6, gets into his skates at the Ice Arena. Caden is the son of Chris and Mychal Leno.

▼ Miranda "Mandy," Mathena, age 12, (center) skates at the Ice Arena. Miranda is the daughter of Lenny and Lydia Logan.

Lila Musso-Bolton got this eagle from the state. It was stuffed and mounted May 7 with a blessing ceremony. She thaked the creator for it in an eagel prayer. She takes it around to schools and tells children about the eagle and what it is used for in the Indian culture. It was also featured in the Priest River paper.

Happy 92nd Birthday

Mabel Gaston

Mom, you have been very special to a lot of folks throughout your life, your unselfish love and caring has not gone unnoticed. The world would be a better place to live with more folks like you. Mom, your family, relatives and friends adore you and wish you a very happy birthday. We all love you very much. Love, Richard, Christine, Byron and Nathan.

Welcome to the world!

Edward Bolton

Edward has graduated from Priest River High School. He has been on the honor roll and he graduates this June with high honors. Edward is going to take a job to try to help and support mom. He wanted to go to college, but wanted to support family instead. He also throws discus and shotput in track and field. He is very active in Indian culture, learning more and more about his heritage every day.
Marcia Bolton is very,
very proud of you.
