Walking On...

"Ode to Isabelle Fry"

A memorial service for Isabelle Marie Fry, a Chinook/Tillamook/Rogue River Tribal Elder 88, of Myrtle Point was held on July 26, 2003 at the Powers Church of God, the Rev. Kenneth Stevens officiated the ceremony. Isabelle was born July 5, 1915, in Eugene, Oregon to Benjamin and Annie (Tieskotter) Jeffers. She passed away on July 12, 2003. Family and friends gathered at the Powers cemetery for drumming and honor songs following the service.

Isabelle was raised for a portion of her life in the Christie Orphan home for Girls in Lake Oswego after the death of her mother. As an adult, she fell in love and married Wilson "Spud" Rogers from Eugene, Oregon. In 1941 Isabelle and Wilson moved to Powers, Oregon and raised their four children; Louise, Bonnie, Larry and Eugene. She lived the majority of her life in Powers. Larry, her son, died in an accident at the age of 15, and Wilson died of a health related illness January 1, 1969.

She spent most of her adult life fishing the Rogue River for salmon. One of her favorite sayings was "Fish On." She met and married her second husband Woodrow Fry in Agnes who was her dear friend and fishing partner for many years. She loved attending pow-wow's, listening to the drums and the sweet smell of bear grass and she followed and honored her ancestral ways. She enjoyed rock hunting, gathering natural herbs and mushroom picking. At the age of 76, she was still fishing and camping the Rogue River in Agnes, Oregon. She was also the mascot for the Powers Cruiser's football team, and she was recognized by the Coos County Blood Bank for donating more than 5 gallons of blood, (whereas she never had a driver's license in her entire life, but managed to hitch a ride with someone going that way to donate blood). She wrote two famous poems; "The Heidelberg Tree"; and "Ode to Rogue River," which the family cherishes dearly.

It was a great honor when Grand Ronde asked Isabelle to be Grand Marshall for the annual pow-wow in August 2003. She wouldn't have missed it for the world.

Isabelle lived her life to its fullest potential and her strong spirit lives in each and everyone who met her, knew her, and loved her. "Long live "Fish On!"

She is survived by her daughters Louise Hannaford of Cottage Grove; Bonnie Findley of Myrtle Point; son, Eugene "Gene" Rogers of Eugene, her grandchildren and great grandchildren and great great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her first husband, Wilson Rogers; son Larry Rogers; brother Fred Jeffers and Edward Jeffers; and her second husband, Woodrow Fry.
