

Walking On...

Aleta Rae Peters

Rae embraced our culture when she became my wife. Rae was a friend to anyone she met, she was all about respect and was proud to be able to be a part of all life around her, especially her beadwork and her family.

Rae loved to pow-wow and was proud of the Tribal people here and helped out as much as she could. We will miss her sweet smile.

Rae is survived by sister, Ruth Anderson of Idaho; brothers, Jess Lofgreen of Texas, Richard Lofgreen of Ohio; husband, Deitrich D. Peters of Willamina; children, Roger Ray of Salem, Kristin Goodman of Grand Ronde, Charles Ray II of Lebanon and stepchildren; Mindy Peters of Washington, Nona Brewer of Albany, Deitrich D. Peters II of Montana and Chad Peters of Portland.

I Deitz, would like to add a special thanks to the Elders at the sweat lodge, the drum groups at the house and at the funeral, to all that prepared the meal, for the beautiful flute songs at the dinner for the special honor songs at the memorial and all the family and friends who gave all their love, prayers, generosity and support through this transition time.
