

Tribal Members Attend Native Youth Conference In South Dakota

On Tour — Six Tribal youth were taken to the Northwest Indian Youth Conference in Rapid City, South Dakota. The trip, arranged by the Grand Ronde Youth Social Services Prevention Department, was a chance not only for kids to network and learn leadership skills, but also to take in the stunning scenery as well. The students, traveling with chaperone and program coordinator Lisa Leno, (above, fourth from right) visited such well-known sites such as Mount Rushmore, Crazy Horse National Monument and the Badlands.

Photos by Ashlee Merrill

