

Pumpkin Carving Contest

Fun With Vegetables — The Human Resources Department held several Rocktober activities throughout the month of October which included a trivia questionnaire and a costume contest. As a part of their activities there was a pumpkin carving contest on Friday, October 22. There were four entries on display in the atrium (above) as Tribal Council can be seen working in the background. Mentorship Program Coordinator and Tribal member Denise Ripley, won best carved pumpkin (right).

Photos by Toby McClary

Youth Education Trip To OMSI

Active Youth — Youth Education held a number of field trips over the summer to help keep students on the right path. Some of the field trips included the Oregon Zoo, the Aquatic Center and the Oregon coast. Shown here is Tribal member, Michael Hostler (above), and College Advisor Rachel Warner, along with Tribal members Katie Phillips and Tiffany Greenberg, (right) while on a field trip to OMSI.

Photos by Toby McClary

New Day Use Park

Photos by Peta Tinda

Lunch Spot — Construction on the Tribe's new Day Use Park, located near the Governance Center, was completed recently. The park features trailer turn-outs, tables and grills, and horseshoe pits. There is also a permanent restroom located nearby.

