High School Scholarships Available

High school seniors from Oregon and Southwest Washington who have been involved in health awareness activities are eligible for scholarships from Oregon Health Forum, an independent health policy resource.

To qualify, students must have done volunteer work, been involved in a research endeavor, worked a health care setting or done community service. The application deadline is March 8, 2005 and scholarships will be awarded in June.

Oregon Health Forum has been providing scholarships to high school seniors for the past four years in its efforts to help promote greater awareness of health care issues as well as encourage students to consider a career in health care.

Founded in 1990, Oregon Health Forum publishes a monthly health policy newsletter and sponsors breakfast seminars on timely health policy issues. To learn more about our organization, visit our website at www.healthforum.org or call our office at 503-226-7870.

Addresses Need Updated For Youth Education (6-12)

The Tribal Youth Education (6-12) Program regularly distributes information about upcoming events as well as our monthly program newsletter.

To better serve our youth and families we are requesting that all youth currently attending grades 6-12 have their addresses and contact information updated immediately. Parents, please help your child with this as it is very important that all of our program's youth and their families receive program updates and information in a timely and efficient manner. Please contact Matt at 503-879-2101 to update your address and contact information.

Grand Ronde Library

The Grand Ronde Tribal Library is located in the Education Building. Library hours are as follows:

Monday — Wednesday 8 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Thursday & Friday: 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Saturday: 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The library collection contains over 1,500 items. We have fiction and non-fiction for youth and adults, a significant Native American collection, books on tape and a limited children's collection. The library has two computers available for use that has internet access. We have an impressive reference section with mostly all new materials.

We are in an assessment process to determine the needs of our library patrons. Please share your comments about what you think we need to have available to better serve the local community library needs.
