Welcome Jacob George Armstrong Born on June 3, 2005. Love, the family.

Tribal member Ronald A. Bly Roll # 3715, the son of Roger and Betty Bly recently took Command as Officer in Charge of Mobile Mine Assembly detachment twelve, Misawa Japan. He will assume all duties as Group Commander for Naval Mining Operations, North Western Pacific. His Command provides for all war reserve sea Mining in the Asiatic theater.

The ceremony marked the 8th change of leadership since the commands establishment in 1986. The Change of Charge Ceremony is a time-honored tradition within the Navy. It is the official "Hail and Farewell" to the departing Officer in Charge and a welcome to the new Officer in charge. Mobile Mine Assembly Detachment 12 was commissioned on 2 November 1987. Chief Warrant Officer Bly is the eighth in succession to take command.

Chief Warrant Officer Bly enlisted in the Navy in June of 1982. His commands to date are Recruit Training Center Great Lakes, Naval Weapons Station Yorktown, Virginia. USS MACDONOUGH (DDG-39), Naval Weapons Station, Charleston, South Carolina. USS MAHAN (DDG-42), USS RICHMOND K. TURNER (CG-20), USS VICKSBURG (CG-69), Program Executive Office for the Theater Surface Combatants (Pentagon), Afloat Training Group Pacific Northwest. He was commissioned a Chief Warrant Officer in January 2002. He assumed Command of Mobile mine assembly detachment twelve, Misawa Japan on 14 April 2005. His awards include The Navy Commendation Medal (Silver star in lieu of sixth award) and the Navy and Marine Corps achievement Medal (two gold stars in lieu of three awards) and numerous campaign and service medals/ribbons.
