

Walking On...

Marlo L. George

August 20, 1975 — December 12, 2005

Tribal member Marlo George passed away of natural causes in Legacy Emanuel Hospital in Portland on Monday, December 12. She was 30.

Born in Salem on August 20, 1975, she was the daughter of Monte and Margo George. She grew up in Grand Ronde, graduating from Willamina High School in 1993. She was a member of the wrestling team and played powder puff football in high school.

She enjoyed fishing, hiking, hunting for antlers, hunting for chanterelle mushrooms, riding on logging equipment and entangling in outdoor pursuits in general. She also enjoyed throwing darts, collecting Mikey Mouse memorabilia, collecting sea turtles and going to work with her fiancé, Jeff Hofenbredl.

Ms. George loved her pets, including exotic birds and her dog, Loke. She was an accomplished artist, working with paints, pencil and charcoal. She had mastered the art of scratch cooking.

In addition to her fiancé, she is survived by two daughters, Tami and Jordan George of Grand Ronde, her mother Margo Mercier of Grand Ronde; and two brothers, Sam and Sol George of Grand Ronde. She was preceded in death by her father, Monte George.

Jessie Brann Retires

Davidson Family Fundraiser — Tribal employees hosted a breakfast for fellow employees on Thursday, December 8. With food and expert cooking services provided by volunteers, the group also took the opportunity to raise funds for the Davidsons, a Tribal family that lost two children in a accidental car fire. Employees scarfed down more than 11 pounds of bacon, 12 dozen link sausages, 16 dozen eggs and 15 pounds of potatoes, and raised $270 for the Davidsons.
