

Tribal Members Ride The Grand Chinook Through Downtown Portland

Photos by Toby McClary

Parade Route — The Grand Floral Parade is the largest single-day spectator event in the state of Oregon drawing a crowd of more than a half million viewers each year. The parade route is 4.3 miles long beginning at the Memorial Coliseum and finishing at the Civic Stadium in downtown Portland. At 99 years old, the Grand Floral Parade has been recognized by the International Festival & Events Association and USA Today as one of the top five parades in the nation. The parade will celebrate its 100 Year Anniversary in 2007.

Tribe's HeadStart Program Takes Students On Summer Fishing Trip

Photos by Toby McClary

"I Got It" — On Wednesday, June 14, Grand Ronde's HeadStart Program took about 35 students to Horning's Hideout, a private fishing lake in North Plains. Each student was allowed four fish to take home to their families. Here, Tribal youth Ethan Leno (l) and local youth Izika Pacheco show off one of their many fish caught throughout the day.