

Spirit Mountain Rodeo

Tribal member Shonn Leno, right, looks out onto the Spirit Mountain Rodeo held in June, where bull riding, (l), and barrel riding, below, took center stage. Jimmy Floyd of Prineville (l) scored in the bull-riding event. Events included stick horse racing for the kids and donkey races for adults. More than 300 took part in eight main events.

Photos by Brent Merrill

Tribal Members On Display During 4th Of July Ceremonies

Photos by Toby McClary

Future Canoers — The Grand Ronde Canoe Family entered a hand-made canoe into the 4th of July Parade in Willamina. The canoe was made by Chinook Tribal member and Interim Cultural Resource's Manager Tony Johnson and his family.

Family Fun — Tribal member Rich Haller poses with Yurok/Hupa/Karuk Tribal member Sunni Ulestad and their son Cohen during the fireworks display held on the evening of the fourth at Glenn Larkins Field in Willamina.

Tribal Elder And Husband Branch Out

Photo by Brent Merrill

Flower Power — Dale and Tribal Elder Norma Lee show some of the beautiful wreaths they are selling for parties, funerals and different events. Everything is made to order. Contact the Lees at 503 879-4268.

Spirit Mountain Gets Commercialized

Photo by Toby McClary

On Location — Members of @Large Films and Lloyd/Maris Advertising scout the hills of Agency Creek seeking a location to film an upcoming commercial for Spirit Mountain Casino's Community Fund. Pictured here are Director curly Johnson, Creative Director David Lloyd, Administrative Assistant Taylor Michael, Security Manager Joann Mercier, Gaming Manager Mike Colton and Location Scout Mike Gust. The commercial was shot in Grand Ronde on Wednesday, June 14.