AMENDMENT TO PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

The Tribal Council, in consultation with the Tribal Attorney's Office, has made the following emergency amendment to the Personnel Management Ordinance. The amendment was adopted on a temporary basis at the February 7, 2007, Tribal Council meeting.

The purpose of the amendment is to reflect the Tribal Council's decision to honor Martin Luther King, Jr. Day as a standard Tribal Holiday instead of President's Day. As a result of the amendment, President's Day will no longer be observed as a standard Tribal Holiday. The amendment modifies the Personnel Management Ordinance as follows:

The word "Presidents Day" is deleted from Section (e)(1)(B) of the Ordinance and replaced with the words "Martin Luther King Jr. Day."

As amended Section (e) of the Ordinance reads as follows:

- (e) Holidays
- (1) Standard holidays of the Tribe shall include:
 - (A) New Year's Day
 - (B) Martin Luther King Jr. Day
 - (C) Memorial Day
 - (D) Tribal Restoration Day
 - (E) Independence Day
 - (F) Labor Day
 - (G) Veterans' Day
 - (H) National Indian Day (4th Friday of September)
 - (I) Thanksgiving Day and following day
 - (J) Christmas Day

The Tribal Council invites comment on the proposed amendment. For a copy of the entire Personnel Management Ordinance please contact the Tribal Attorney's Office at 503-879-4664. You may send written comments to the Tribal Attorney's Office, 9615 Grand Ronde Road, Grand Ronde, OR 97347. Comments must be received by Friday, March 30, 2007 at 5 p.m.
