Family Literacy Night: We had four families participate in the three workshop series this year with a focus on Reading Comprehension. Youth and parents enjoyed learning new reading strategies, character role playing, making collages and stick puppets, putting on plays, making Native American game pieces, and playing the games. The Tribal Library will sponsor Family Literacy workshops again next February and March. Thank you families who participated and made the sessions fun and successful!

Book club meets on Monday, April 23, from 5:30 – 6:30 p.m.

We have two book orders in so we will be adding quite a few new books to the collection in April.
