The workshops will be taught by Northwest Computer Learning Center and will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the computer lab in the Adult Education Building. Cost for a workshop is $150 and eligible Tribal members can apply to the Noncredit Program (formally Short Term Training) for assistance with registration costs. Space is limited to the first 15 who register.

To register, contact Joshua Clift, Adult Vocational Training coordinator, at 503-879-1635 or e-mail joshua.clift@grandronde.org.

Do you need funding assistance with graduation costs or admission/testing fee costs?

Graduation Sponsorship Program is available to Grand Ronde Tribal members who are graduating from a high school, college/university or trade/apprenticeship program. The program will pay up to $100 towards graduation expenses (cap, gown and/or announcements).

Admission and Testing Fee Assistance Program is available to Grand Ronde Tribal members who are applying for admission to colleges and universities or are in need of testing fee assistance for college-level testing (SAT, ACT, GRE, etc.). The program will pay up to $200 towards admission and testing fees per academic year.

For more information or to request an application, contact the CTGR Academic Advising Office at 1-800-422-0232, ext. 1478, or e-mail trinity.minahan@grandronde.org.

Are you interested in pursuing graduate school?

Graduate Horizons — For Native college students, master's students or alumni to help prepare them for graduate school (master's, Ph.D. or professional school). Faculty, admission officers and deans representing hundreds of graduate disciplines and a host of graduate and professional schools will help you select programs and careers suitable for you, complete winning applications and write memorable personal statements, become a test-prep "whiz" on the GRE, GMAT, LSAT and MCAT, explore special issues for Native students, etc.

Travel stipends are available if you apply early.

For more information and an application for the program, go to www.collegehorizons.org or contact Christine Suina, Program Coordinator, at 505-401-3854, or e-mail CollegeHorizons@aol.com.

College Horizons 2008 for current Native high school sophomores and juniors

A Pre-College Workshop for Native American Students

Collaborating Partners: American Indian Graduate Center, Winds of Change magazine, Harvard University, Stanford University, Princeton Review Foundation, the College Board and 41 of the nation's finest colleges and universities.

June 14-18, 2008 — Duke University, Durham, N.C.

June 28-July 2, 2008 — Lawrence University, Appleton, Wis.

College Horizons is a five-day "crash course" in preparing for college. Expert college counselors, teamed with college admissions officers, will help you:

- ◆ Select colleges suitable for you, complete winning applications and write memorable essays, learn what turns an applicant into an admitted student, become a test-prep "whiz kid," and find your way through the financial aid/scholarship jungle.
- ◆ Colleges and universities represented will include (but are not limited to): Harvard University, Dartmouth College, Cornell University, Columbia University, Princeton University, Stanford University and Yale University.

Complete program cost is $150 (includes tuition, room, meals and transportation to campus from the airport.) There are some stipends available for airfare and tuition assistance if you apply early.

For an application and more information on the program, go to www.collegehorizons.org.

For questions contact Christine Suina, Program Coordinator at 505-401-3854 or CollegeHorizons@aol.com
