

Tribe changes health plan to add adult foster care

The Tribe has recently made changes to the Tribal Member Health Plan, administered by UMR. Effective immediately, the health plan will assist eligible Tribal members and spouses in payment to the Grand Ronde Adult Foster Care Program.

Members needing assistance with their activities of daily living due to a recent illness or hospitalization may now qualify for the Tribe's health plan to pay the first 100 days of stay in the Adult Foster Care Program.

Services are only covered when performed at the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde Adult Foster Care facility, and will be payable at 90 percent of charges.

For further information, contact UMR at 1-888-CTGR-BEN or CTGR Risk Management at 503-879-2332.

Everett D. Farlow

May 26, 1922 - Nov. 29, 2007

Tribal Elder Everett D. "Bud" Farlow, 85, died Nov. 29 at Black Bear Lodge in Grand Ronde.

Mr. Farlow was born May 26, 1922, in Salem and was raised there. He was the grandson of Indian Mary Peco of Grants Pass, who was the daughter of Umpqua Joe (Rogue River) and has a park named after her.

Mr. Farlow was a good husband, his wife's best friend and a good father. He always joked around, making family members laugh.

He served in the Navy during World War II and received a Purple Heart. After he returned from the war, he met his wife, Jerry. They celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary on Nov. 24.

Survivors include his wife, Jerry, of Salem; sons, Eldon and Murray of Portland; daughters, Terry Lou Boerckel of Portland, Lannie Farlow of the United Arab Emirates and Bonnie Norine Meeker of Salem; 17 grandchildren and 32 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by three sons: Everett Jr. in 1947, Lauren in 1972 and Martin in 1995.

Family members said he will be missed by all, including nephews and nieces and two special friends, Pat Smith and Earl Bonne.

Family members said he spent the last days of his life at Black Bear Lodge, where he looked out upon beautiful scenery and talked of the deer coming to his window.

Family members thanked Black Bear Lodge employees for the love and care they gave to their father.
