Tribal Council member Wink Soderberg meets McMinnville Mayor Ed Gormley's daughters, Kori and Kim, at the Mayor's Charity Ball held in February. The ball was a fundraiser for the Kids on the Block after-school enrichment program and the Tribe and Spirit Mountain Casino were Cornerstone Partners of the annual event. The next Mayor's Charity Ball is scheduled for Feb. 7, 2009.

Bill earns degree in criminal justice

Tribal member Deneise Bill graduated in mid-May from California State University, Chico, with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. She plans a career in probation and parole.

"I feel there is a great need in Tehama County for these services," Bill, 46, told the Red Bluff Daily News. "And I want to be a part of it."

Bill, nee Rife, is the mother of three children: Tribal members Ashley, 18, and twins, Jozie and Brodie, 14. Her parents are Tribal member Robert and his wife, Amy, of Culver, Ore., and LaWanda Bowen and her husband, Coy, of Fruitland, Idaho.

She is the wife of Joe Bill of Red Bluff and received her degree after a 25-year span from leaving high school.

Bill earned an associate of arts degree in university studies at Shasta College, graduating with high honors. She was Phi Beta Kappa and in the National Honor Society.

Bill's graduation was celebrated May 16 at North Valley Baptist Church in Red Bluff.

"I want to thank the Tribe for its support in getting me through college," Bill said. "I would not have been able to do it without them." ■
