My name is Aubrey Leno and I am currently working my summer youth internship at the Grand Ronde Tribal Library. I really enjoy working here at this fantastic library and Marion Mercier is a wonderful supervisor and librarian. I am learning so much since I've been here and I am expecting to learn much more throughout my time here. Below is a book review I wrote.

Rules by Cynthia Lord

I highly recommend this book to any young reader. This is a story about Catharine, a 12-year-old girl who is dealing with normal pre-teen troubles AND the burden of her autistic brother, David. David has trouble remembering rules and Catharine tries to help although she still doesn't understand why he can't be normal. She can't wait to see her new neighbor who is her age since she hasn't had anyone around because her best friend went away for summer. This story also tells about Catharine meeting a boy who has speech problems and ends up helping her learn more about herself.

Will she like her new neighbor? Will she ever understand her brother? You'll have to read this wonderful book to find out.
