

Working for the summer

Tribal member Ariel Bailey 17, worked as Youth Education Coordinator assistant as part of the second wave of Summer Youth Employment Program participants from July 14 through Aug. 8.

Tribal members Wilson Bobb, 14, and Tim Harris, 15, worked as aides at the Tribal Preschool.

Tribal member Andrew Zimbrick, 16, worked at the Preschool as a classroom aide.

Tribal member Jonathan Warren, 15, worked outside with Housing Maintenance as an assistant.

Photo by Michelle Alaimo

Tribal member Joel Selwyn, 16, worked for Smoke Signals as an assistant photographer.

Tribal member Karissa Roberts, 15, worked as a Tribal Council intern.

Photos by Joel Selwyn

Tribal member Kimberly Roybal, 15, worked at the K-5 as an aide in the classroom.

Tribal member Kerrina Grout, 17, worked as a Higher Education aide at Adult Education.

Tribal member Brandon Bruckner, 17, worked in the kitchen as an assistant at the Preschool and K-5.

Tribal member Brook Stewart, 15, worked at the Tribal Library.

Tribal member Tawnie Kimsey, 14, worked for K-5 as an aide in the classroom.

Tribal member Tyler Brown, 16, worked as a Cultural Resources intern.

Tribal member Seth Mercier, 17, worked outside with Housing Maintenance as an assistant.