OPEN FOR COMMENT

Notice of Availability of Funds and Request for Comment on Proposed Use

The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde, as a Special Transportation Fund Agency, has been allocated up to $110,514 for the 2009-2011 biennium under the Public Transportation Discretionary Grant program offered by the Oregon Department of Transportation. The Tribe is requesting comment on the following project proposed for use of this funding: A project to support the operations of commuter express transit service between Salem and Grand Ronde through purchased services including nine round trips per day Monday through Friday which are open to the general public and lift equipped for the disabled.

This Salem-Grand Ronde route is in the Tribe's existing adopted Coordinated Transportation Plan as a priority service. The Plan was created with and reviewed and recommended by the Tribe's STF Advisory Committee for adoption by Tribal Council.

Additional information is available from Kim Rogers, Planning & Grants Manager, Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde, 9615 Grand Ronde Road, Grand Ronde, OR 97347; 503-879-2250. The Tribe invites comments on the proposed application by writing to this same address. Comments should be received before 9 a.m. Feb. 10, 2009. It is anticipated that the application will be recommended for approval on this date. The application may be revised based on the comments received.
