EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

9th Annual OHSU Multicultural Health, Science & Engineering Career Conference

The OHSU Center for Diversity and Multicultural Affairs (CeDMA) will be hosting its ninth annual OHSU Multicultural Health, Science & Engineering Career Conference on Friday, Feb. 20, from 9 a.m. – 4 p.m. at the OHSU Marquam Hill campus in Portland, Ore.

We are inviting college students interested in pursuing a career in the health care and/or science profession to attend our educational and interactive conference.

Conference objectives include:

- Encourage diverse students to enter the health and science professions.
- Provide students with insight on health care and science professions in medicine, nursing, dentistry, allied health, engineering, biomedical informatics, dietetics & nutrition and pharmacy.
- Provide admission processes and other relevant information.
- Introduce students to OHSU educational programs, faculty, facilities and resources.
- Promote bicultural/bilingual prospective health and science providers.

Out-of-state students tuition eligible for in-state tuition

If you are an out-of-state student who is a member of an Oregon Tribe, or a Tribe that had traditional and customary boundaries in Oregon, you are eligible for in-state tuition at any of the Oregon University System schools. This ruling acknowledges some California, Idaho, Nevada and Washington Tribes, as well as the Modoc Tribe of Oklahoma. For more information on this Oregon Administrative Rule, visit www.ous.edu/aca/diversity/NAguide2005.pdf. ■

Oregon Student Assistance Commission Scholarships

Applications are now available for the 2009 OSAC Scholarships. Each year OSAC administers nearly 400 scholarships though its application. Application deadline is March 1, or to enter for an Early Bird Scholarship by Feb. 15. Out-of-state students who are members of Oregon Tribes and attending Oregon schools are also able to apply. For more information or to apply, please visit www.getcolllegefunds.org. ■
