Letters

Dear Smoke Signals:

During the snow and ice, Julie Davis, our pharmacist, went beyond the call of duty to get all of the medicines that needed filled.

Her husband, Mike, drove her down to the clinic so she could fill these medicines. Then she dropped them off at the lodge, where many of us went to stay, on her way home.

Also thanks to her help in there for helping her during that week when everything was closed. They need to be recognized in some way to show our appreciation for this.

Thanks again, Julie and crew.

Editorial Policy

SMOKE SIGNALS, a publication of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon, is published twice a month. No portion of this publication may be reprinted without permission.

Our editorial policy is intended to encourage input from Tribal members and readers about stories printed in the Tribal newspaper. However, all letters received must be signed by the author, an address must be given and a phone number or e-mail address must be included for verification purposes. Full addresses and phone numbers will not be published unless requested.

SMOKE SIGNALS reserves the right to edit letters and to refuse letters that are determined to contain libelous statements or personal attacks on individuals, staff, Tribal administration or Tribal Council. Not all letters are guaranteed publication upon submission. Letters to the editor are the opinions and views of the writer. Published letters do not necessarily reflect the opinions of SMOKE SIGNALS, Tribal staff, Tribal administration or Tribal Council.
