The new Elders' Activity Center opened in November and has been serving meals to Tribal Elders four days a week, Tuesday through Friday.

In March, the center started a craft day that usually starts at 10 a.m. Tuesdays. Tribal Elder Gladys Hobbs accepted the craft coordinator duties. The first project was making sweat-shirt jackets, an idea presented and instructed by Tribal Elder Crystal Thomas.

Future projects will include canning elk and venison, wood carving and preparing for the upcoming Elders

Honor Day in July.

The center had a successful Spaghetti Feed and Silent Auction at the Community Center. Thank you to everyone who attended.

On March 20, the Elder bus went to Three Rivers Casino in Florence for the "Elders Honor Day" co-hosted by the Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua & Siuslaw Indians and the Coquille Tribe. All had a good time. ■
