

Reeds receive academic honors

The son and daughter of Tribal member Ron Reed Sr. and his wife, Jodee, recently receive academic honors.

Tribal member Katlin Reed, 12, was honored for an essay she wrote for her sixth-grade class about Oregon State University Professor Jane Lubchenco, who was recently named by President Barack Obama to head the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

Katlin earned a first-place honor at the Oregon State University Womens' Engineering Society Banquet held in Corvallis. She received an awards certificate and $75 cash prize.

Ron Reed Jr., an eighth-grader at Glide Middle School, was honored at the Glide School District School Board meeting and presented with the ESPEY (Exceptional School Performance of the Year) Award. He also excelled scholastically by being on the school's honor roll for all three quarters.
