

Tribal Elders, center from left, Laura Lund, Kathryn Harrison and Cherie Butler participated in the last leg of the Paddle on the Willamette on Saturday, June 13. The last leg was from Cathedral Park to Kelley Point Park, both in Portland.

The Grand Ronde Canoe Family canoe is carried from the beach at Kelley Point Park in Portland to the trailer.

The Grand Ronde Canoe Family arrives at the beach at Kelley Point Park in Portland at the end of the Paddle on the Willamette.

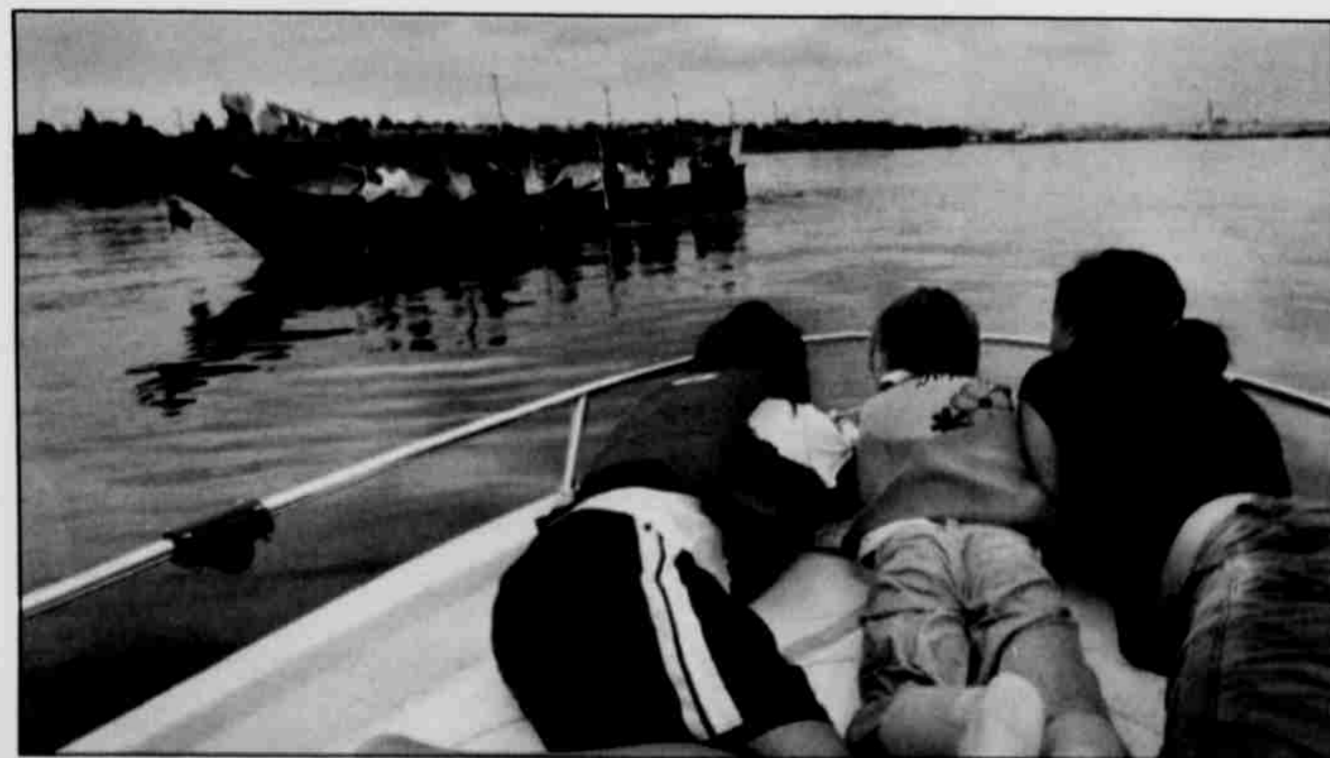

BACK ON THE PADDLE AGAIN

Photos by Michelle Alaimo

Graphic created by George Valdez

Tribal members and members of the Grand Ronde Canoe Family, from left, Eirik Thorsgard, Travis Mercier, Brian Krehbiel, Joel Selwyn, Julian Rock and Mary Lopez sing as they welcome the canoes to shore at Kelley Point Park in Portland during the Paddle on the Willamette.

From left, Tribal members Mataya Holmes and Sophia Mercier and Jennifer Barrett (Siulaw) watch from the bow of the support boat.

The Grand Ronde Canoe Family paddles past a cargo ship during the Paddle on the Willamette.