

From left, Jody Jerger, the Tribe's budget/grants manager, Jilene Mercier, Spirit Mountain Community Fund secretary, and April Neill, Planning & Grants Development Department secretary, each took first place for their masks during the Halloween Decorated Mask contest in the Governance Center Atrium on Wednesday, Oct. 28. Jerger won for scariest mask, Mercier won funniest and Neill won most creative.

Tribal member Kazsia Connelly, 3, eats a marshmallow as she decorates a cookie during the Preschool/Head Start Halloween Party in the Tribal gymnasium on Friday, Oct. 30.

Graphic created by George Valdez

Tribal descendant Tara Thorsgard collects a gift card from Youth Education Program Manager Molly Matthews, left, then looks to a table of prizes to pick from after her bumblebee costume won grand prize in the costume contest during the Youth Education Halloween bowling at Starlite Lanes in Dallas on Friday, Oct. 30.

Photos by Michelle Alaimo

Tribal member Elizabeth Watson-Croy puts fangs in as she adds the finishing touch on her costume for the costume contest during the Youth Education Halloween bowling at Starlite Lanes in Dallas on Friday, Oct. 30.