

HEARTS OF THE MATTER

Tribal member Gage Bishop, 4, smiles as he pulls a bunch of hearts out of a bucket while playing a fishing game during Head Start/Preschool Valentine's Day party at Early Childhood on Friday, Feb. 12.

Tribal member Ray Duran helps his son, Tribal member Keahi, 3, frost a cookie before he decorates it.

Head Start student Noah Lindblom paints a snake on the face of George Neujahr, a bus driver/classroom aide for the Tribe, during the Head Start/Preschool Valentine's Day party.

Tribal Elder Bill Simmons, a resident at Black Bear Lodge, picks a cupcake for winning a bingo game from a tray held by Shirley Walkhoff, the Tribe's Adult Foster Care director, during Valentine's Day Bingo at the lodge on Friday, Feb. 12.

Shirley Walkhoff, the Tribe's Adult Foster Care director, helps Black Bear Lodge resident Dale Lee find a number on his bingo card as she calls the numbers during Valentine's Day Bingo.

Photos by Michelle Alaimo