Second Oregon Veterans' Home to be in Lebanon

The Oregon Department of Veterans' Affairs will build the state's second veterans' home in Lebanon in Linn County.

Originally slated to be a 250-bed facility, the second veterans' home will now be a 100- to 150-bed facility after a site evaluation committee recommendation said that a third veterans' home should be built in Roseburg to serve southwestern Oregon.

The department will need legislative approval to build a third veterans' home.

"The site evaluation committee did painstaking work, visiting each of the five sites and reviewing the excellent proposals that were submitted," said Department of Veterans' Affairs Director Jim Willis. "While all the sites were outstanding, Linn County's proposal rose to the top and we are excited to work with the community to build the second veterans' home."

While reviewing Oregon's veterans population demographics, the committee recognized the need to adjust its original plan by "right-sizing" the second veterans' home and planning for a third in Roseburg.

"The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs has told us that Oregon needs 800 skilled-nursing beds for veterans in this state," Willis said. "Oregon has one veterans' home in The Dalles with 151 beds."

Grand Ronde Tribal Elder Gene LaBonte serves as chairman of the Governors' Advisory Committee to the Director of Veterans' Affairs. The committee discussed siting of the second veterans' home in Oregon at its Dec. 2 meeting held in Grand Ronde at the Tribal Community Center. ■
