N.W. Native Club

Hello my name is Jeremy Bailey I'm the president of the newly formed N.W. Native Club at Chemeketa Community College and I'm also a Grand Ronde Tribal member and I'm encouraging Native students to stop by the Multicultural Center and introduce themselves to me. The mission is to enhance the intellectual, social, cultural and economic values of our Native students. The many contributions of the Native community needs to be shared with our campus community.

K-5 2010 Summer Program for Tribal and Native American Youth

Applications for K-5 students interested in participating in the 2010 Summer Program can now be picked up at the Youth Education Building.

Completed applications will be accepted at Youth Education beginning at 8 a.m. Monday, May 3. Incomplete applications will not be accepted. A checklist of required documentation that needs to be included with the completed application will be attached to the application form.

Eligibility requirements, as stated through the Child Care Development Fund Grant, states that parent(s)/guardian(s) must be in school, working or in a training program during operational hours for a youth to participate.

The program will begin on Monday, June 7, and end in mid-August.

At this time, space is limited. A waiting list will be created for those applicants who are not awarded one of the limited open spaces.

The program is open to Tribal, Descendant and Native American students, with a preference given to enrolled CTGR youth.

Please contact Toni Mercier at 503-879-2101 or Matt Bucknell at 503-879-2224 with any questions.
