Spend the afternoon with Chemeketa students, staff and community members for a fun-filled event. Performances by local Native American musicians, singers, folk dancers from the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde and Siletz.

Featuring nationally known actor and musician, Lilefoot.

Through his label Red Vinyl Records, Lilefoot has single-handedly pioneered hip hop music on American Indian reservations in North America. He's now set to catapult his brand of hip hop into the mainstream with his latest release "Reverence Pursuit."

Lilefoot has had phenomenal success with his film and television acting career. Beginning with his starring role in the Paramount Pictures film, "Indian in the Cupboard", Lilefoot has chosen to involve himself in quality projects that push creative boundaries while expanding the scope of acting roles previously available to Native Americans.
