Reibach releasing single to benefit Boys & Girls Clubs of America

By Dean Rhodes

Smoke Signals editor

Tribal member and Tribal Lands Manager Jan Michael Looking Wolf Reibach will release the new single "Live As One" on Friday, July 9, and will donate 50 percent of sales' proceeds to the Boys and Girls Clubs of America.

Reibach, who was named Artist of the Year at the 2009 Native American Music Awards, said the lyrics to the song came to him in a dream.

"My label, family and I feel it is the most beautiful song that I've ever been blessed to write," Reibach said. "The song is about unity, living together in harmony and recognizing that we are all related. It is by far the most positive song I've ever recorded. This is a beautiful children's choir singing with me at the end."

Reibach, who is working in conjunction with Orca Moon Music in Seattle and Spirit Wind Records in New York, will debut "Live As One" on the Native Trailblazers BlogTalkRadio show at 4 p.m. Pacific time on Friday, July 9. The show can be found at www.blogtalkradio.com/nativetrailblazers.

In addition, "Live As One" will be sold on iTunes and will be available for purchase following the show at most popular digital download sites.

Reibach said the rock ballad is a song created for the benefit of the world's children.

"This is a song for them," he said. "We can make a difference in this world, all of us, together."

Produced by Keith Sommers, "Live As One" is being hailed as Reibach's best work to date.

"This is a song that the whole world will enjoy. It's simply beautiful," said Betti Johnson, president of Orca Moon.

"'JM' did it again. This song is incredible. He has committed so much of his life to promoting healing through music and Native culture. What an inspiration. What a beautiful song," said Donald Blackfox, chief executive officer of Spirit Wind Records.

In addition, Reibach said he is offering the song to the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde for whatever use the Tribe deems appropriate.

"Its message is for all people," he said. "Native and non-Native alike." ■

Casino hosting Caged Combat
