

Egged on

Sierra Strunk, 3, a Grand Ronde community member, eats candy out of one half of a plastic egg she found after participating in the Easter Egg Hunt at Tribal family housing on Saturday, April 23.

Tribal member Tyrell Soderberg helps his six-month-old son Brady, also a Tribal member, collect eggs during the Easter Egg Hunt at Tribal family housing on Saturday, April 23. The event was sponsored by the Community Awareness Team and Grand Ronde Community Wellness. One hundred and 47 children signed up to hunt for 2,000 Easter eggs that were stuffed and hidden.

Come join us at Culture Nights every other Monday of the month!

On the first Monday we will meet at the Community Center to learn to weave, sew, and bead and get to know more about what's going on in the community. On the second Monday we will meet at the Tribal Longhouse to learn how to sing or learn new songs and dances too. We will provide all dinners.

So mark your calendars for the following dates

May 9th and 23rd

June 6th and 20th

(if any of these dates change we will put out a notice)

If you have any questions, you can contact Brian Krehbiel at 503-879-1639 or Shannon Stanton at 503-879-1489

Thank you for respecting Grand Ronde Community & Culture by not displaying gang affiliation and by not bringing drugs, alcohol or weapons to this event.
