

Luncheon speech

Photo by Michelle Alaimo

Jon George, Tribal member and a Vocational Rehabilitation specialist for the Tribe, puts pamphlets on the tables with information about the Tribe's Vocational Rehabilitation program before he spoke about the Tribe's history, where the Tribe is today and Tribe's Voc Rehab program, during the Oregon Native American Chamber monthly luncheon at the Native American Youth and Family Center in Portland on Wednesday, April 27.

— Project Managers —

The Tribe recently sent out a RFP for Project Management services. The RFP was advertised in the Daily Journal of Commerce.

As part of our commitment to ensuring that Tribal members are provided the opportunity to provide governmental services when needed, we would like to invite you to respond to the RFP.

If you are a Tribal member and have an engineering/project management company, or if you have a project management background, please contact Jesse White at 503-879-2404 or at jesse.white@grandronde.org and request an RFP.

RFPs will be accepted until 5 p.m. Friday, May 6. ■

Diabetes Self-Management Workshop

Living Healthy

With Diabetes & Other Chronic Conditions

Discover how to:

- Eat Healthy and control your blood sugars
- Cope with all life's ups and downs
- Stay physically active despite your chronic condition
- Make informed decisions about treatment options

If you are like 80 million other Americans who have been diagnosed as either pre-diabetic or diabetic, you are probably facing some major changes to your lifestyle. This condition may or may not be causing you some limitations. Come join us in a fun and informative class where you will learn how you can better manage this common chronic illness so that it doesn't manage you.

Where: Grand Ronde Tribal Health Center, Molalla Room

When: June 13 – July 25, 2011

Time: Mondays: 9:30 a.m. – Noon

Cost: No cost but you must pre-register

For more information and to sign up for this class, contact Debra Driscoll of OSU-Extension at 503-602-2651
