

Cascade Crossing Oral History Project

Grand Ronde's Site Protection Program, in The Cultural Resources Department, is seeking Tribal members who have:

1. Hunted
2. Fished
3. Gathered
4. Participated in other traditional practices within the vicinity of:
 - Detroit, OR
 - Breitenbush Hot Springs
 - Olallie Lake
 - Molalla Table Rock
 - Silver Falls
 - Santiam State Forest

We are seeking information on our people's connection to the land in these areas both past and present. Information collected will be used by the Tribe in confidential consultation with state and federal agencies regarding proposed and future development in these areas.

If you have information or know someone who does about our people's traditional use of the areas stated above, past or present, please contact the Tribe's Cultural Protection Specialist David Harrelson at 503-879-2320 or by e-mail at david.harrelson@grandronde.org.
