Architectural/Engineering Services
The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde
Women's Transition House Renovation and Addition

The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde wishes to retain an Architectural/Engineering team to perform planning and design services for a Women's Transition House Renovation and Addition project. The Tribe plans to renovate an existing 2,280 sq. ft. house and construct a 1,560 sq. ft. addition to the home. It is anticipated that the existing house will include the kitchen, dining rooms, a living room, family room, and 3 or 4 bedrooms. The addition will include 4 or 5 bedrooms, a storage room, a large laundry room, an adult lounge room, and additional bathrooms.

The project is funded by a HUD Indian Community Development Block Grant. Indian preference applies to Indian-owned economic enterprises or organizations.

Electronic copies of the RFP documents are available by e-mailing Jesse White at jesse.white@grandronde.org or calling 503-879-2404. ■

Grand Ronde Tribal Housing Authority

Opportunity for comment on GRTHA's 2011 Annual Performance Report (APR)

Under the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act of 1996, (NAHASDA), the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) will provide grants to Indian Tribes/Indian Housing Authorities for the development and operation of low-income housing in Indian areas. Grants are made to eligible recipients under the Indian Housing Block Grant Program. To be eligible for the grants, respondents must submit an Indian Housing Plan that meets the minimum requirements of the Act, and also submit an Annual Performance Report to HUD, and maintain records for HUD monitoring. The Grand Ronde Tribal Housing Authority (GRTHA) has received multiple grants under this program which were active during 2011. Comments on the Annual Performance Report are welcome and copies of this report can be obtained at the GRTHA office or by calling 503-879-2401, or 1-800-422-0232, ext. 2401. Comments must be submitted in writing to GRTHA no later than 5 p.m., Monday, April 16, 2012. All comments will be incorporated into the final report submitted to HUD.

Walking On...

Sanda "Sam" Lois Henny

April 8, 1947 - March 15, 2012

Tribal Elder Sanda "Sam" Lois Henny, 64, a resident of Dallas, walked on Thursday, March 15, 2012, in Salem Hospital.

She was born April 8, 1947, in McMinnville, Ore., the daughter of Roscoe and Rosella Leno Langley. She married John Lemery Henny of Brooks, Ore., on Nov. 30, 1968, at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Grand Ronde, Ore. They lived and worked in Brooks for 30 years and were proud members of the Gervais community and the Catholic Church.

Sanda worked hard and was a proud member of the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde and a Tribal Elder. She worked for Spirit Mountain Casino as Tribal Development manager and trainer. She worked in the Human Resources field for more than 25 years in employee relations, training and organizational and career development. She was a member of the National Native American Human Resources Association and a past member of the board of directors.

Sanda was very talented as a Native American basket weaver and she has baskets displayed at the University of Oregon in Eugene and Hallie Ford Museum of Art at Willamette University in Salem. She also taught basket weaving classes at other Oregon Tribes. She was a big fan of the Oregon State University Beavers and the Seattle Mariners. She enjoyed making cards and doing crafts, and was also a talented artist in paints. She was very dedicated to her husband, two children and four grandchildren.

Sanda retired from Spirit Mountain Casino in December 2011 after her 10-year-long courageous battle with cancer. Through it all, she always had a smile for everyone and a fabulous sense of humor.

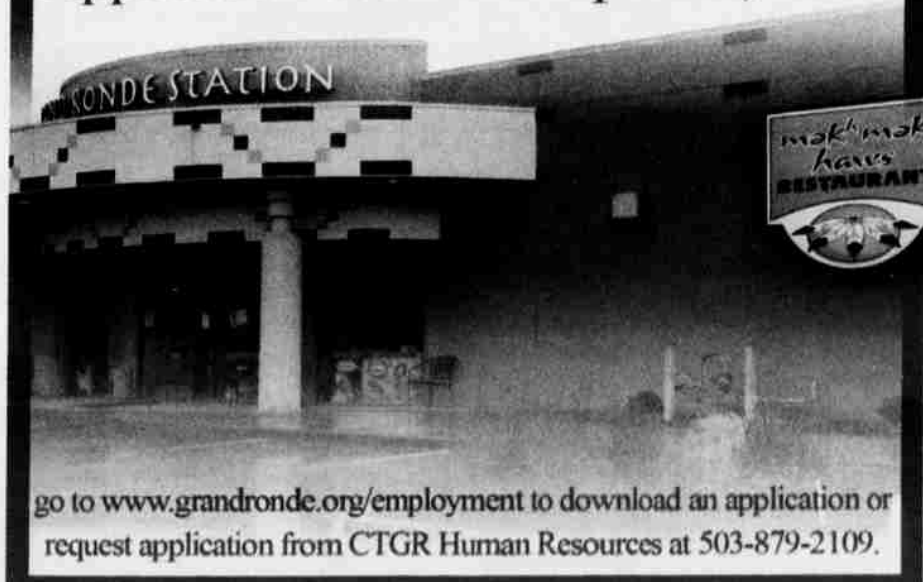

She is survived by her husband, John Henny of Dallas; son, Adam (Julie) Henny of Beaverton; daughter Sarah (Michael) Harvey of Keizer; and four grandchildren, Genevieve and John Henny and Jordan and Evan Harvey. Also surviving are siblings Roscoe Langley Jr. of Blakely, Ga., Erwin Langley of Otis, Ore., and Joan Jones of Dallas, Ore. Her siblings who walked on before her were Norita Wakeland, Myrna Brickell, Marvin Langley and Jody Hubbell.

The Rosary was recited at 10:30 a.m. followed by an 11 a.m. Funeral Mass on Thursday, March 22, at St. Philip Catholic Church in Dallas, with a reception immediately following at the church. Private burial was at the Holmes Cemetery in Grand Ronde on Friday, March 23.

Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center handled the arrangements.

Donations can be made to OHSU Knight Cancer Institute or the Oregon Health and Sciences University Foundation, 1121 S.W. Salmon St., Suite 100, Portland, OR 97205-2021. To leave an online condolence for the family, go to www.dallastrIBUTE.com.
