

PUBLIC RECORDS ORDINANCE AMENDMENT
OPEN FOR COMMENT

The Tribal Council, in consultation with the Tribal Attorney's Office, is considering adoption of an amendment to the Public Records Ordinance. The proposed amendment was given a First Reading at the April 4, 2012, Tribal Council meeting.

The purpose of the proposed amendment to the Public Records Ordinance is to fulfill the requirements of Chapter 644, Oregon Laws 2011 (Senate Bill 412) for the Tribal Police Department requiring the Tribe to adopt a provision of Tribal law that provides members of the public with the right to inspect records of the Tribal government related to the exercise of the authority granted to authorized Tribal Police Officers in a manner substantially similar to Oregon law.

The proposed amendment adds the definition of "law enforcement records" as those records "related to the exercise of the authority granted to authorized Tribal police officers under Chapter 644, Oregon Laws 2011" and amends Section (f) as follows:

(f) INSPECTION OF TRIBAL RECORDS.

(1) Right to view and copy Records:

(A) Only enrolled members of the Tribe have a right to view or obtain copies of Records under this Ordinance provided, however, that non-enrolled members of the public may view law enforcement records as defined herein. Such members of the public will have the same rights as Tribal Members to review and inspect law enforcement records and appeal denials as set forth within this Section (f).

TRIBAL TORT CLAIM ORDINANCE AMENDMENT
OPEN FOR COMMENT

The Tribal Council, in consultation with the Tribal Attorney's Office, is considering adoption of an amendment to the Tribal Tort Claims Ordinance. The proposed amendment was given a First Reading at the April 4, 2012, Tribal Council meeting.

The purpose of the proposed amendment to the Tribal Tort Claims Ordinance is to fulfill the conditions established in Chapter 644, Oregon Laws 2011 (SB 412) requiring the Tribe to have adopted a provision of Tribal law that allows tort claims asserted in the Tribal Court arising from the conduct of an authorized Tribal Police Officer to proceed in a manner substantially similar to Oregon law.

The proposed amendment to the Tribal Tort Claims Ordinance clarifies that authorized Tribal Police Officers are included within the definition of employees, and that claims arising from the conduct of an authorized Tribal Police Officer are included within the Tribal Tort Claims Ordinance - by modifying the definitions of "Employee" and "Injury" as follows:

"Employee" means any person who is an employee, whether full-time or part-time, permanent or temporary, of the Tribe, and shall include an authorized Tribal police officer, as defined in Section 1 of Chapter 644, Oregon Laws 2011 (SB 412).

"Injury" means injury to a person, death, damage to or loss of property of whatever kind, which, if caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of a private person would be a tort under Tribal law, applicable federal law, and, to the extent consistent with Tribal law, laws of the State of Oregon (including a tort as defined in ORS 30.260(8)) in effect as of the date of this Ordinance, regardless of the type or form of action or form of relief sought by the claimant.

The proposed amendment also adds the following language to Section (e)(1):

Notwithstanding the foregoing, claims for monetary damages arising from the conduct of an authorized Tribal police officer shall be limited to the amounts listed in ORS 30.260 to 30.300 applicable to a local public body.

For a copy of the proposed amendment to the Tribal Tort Claims Ordinance, please contact the Tribal Attorney's Office at 503-879-4664. The Tribal Council invites comment on the proposed amendment. Please send your comments to the Tribal Attorney's Office, 9615 Grand Ronde Road, Grand Ronde, Oregon 97347. Comments must be received by May 15, 2012.
