

Walking On...

Jason William Emery

Sept. 22, 1974- Oct. 21, 2012

Tribal member Jason William Emery, 38, a longtime resident of Hoquiam, Wash., walked on Sunday, Oct. 21, 2012, at the University of Washington Medical Center in Seattle.

He was born in Aberdeen, Wash., on Sept. 22, 1974, to Charles R. and Sharon M. (Erickson) Emery. He attended local schools.

He was an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde and enjoyed paint brushing, beadwork, woodworking and drawing. He was a skilled musician and was a member of numerous bands in the area.

Surviving relatives include three sisters, Julie Ann Conway of Lucerne, Calif., Theresa Lynn Emery of Aberdeen and Tammie Lorraine Davis Emery of Ocean Shores, Wash.; three brothers, Daniel Charles Emery and Douglas Randall of Hoquiam and Dennis Carl Emery of Ocean Shores; 11 nieces, seven nephews, three grandnieces and eight grandnephews. He also is survived by numerous uncles, aunts and cousins.

An urn committal service will be held at Sunset Memorial Park in Hoquiam on Saturday, Nov. 3.

Arrangements were handled by Coleman Mortuary, 422 Fifth St., Hoquiam.

Donald Gene Hudson

Nov. 18, 1946 - Oct. 7, 2012

Tribal Elder Donald G. Hudson, son of Grand Ronde Tribal Elder Eugene A. Hudson and Siletz Tribal Elder Gladys M. (Lane) Bolton, walked on Oct. 7, 2012.

Don was born at Chemawa Indian School on Nov. 18, 1946. At the age of 18, he was in the U.S. Army 173rd Airborne Division in Vietnam. Don returned from the war and re-enlisted for six years, but was given a medical discharge. He was diagnosed with post-traumatic stress syndrome and Agent Orange. He dealt with the demons of war and had continued flashbacks and seizures. He was one of the proudest veterans of the Vietnam conflict.

Don worked for various Native American Tribes and organizations. He worked for Native American organizations in Idaho and locally for the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde and Confederated Tribes of Siletz. He was a program developer and worked tenaciously for veterans of all conflicts and wars. He participated in many color guard functions for Tribes and was known to carry the Vietnam flag.

Don is survived by his wife, Margo Hudson of Siletz; daughter, Tamora Herrmann; and was preceded in death by his son, Blue. He is also survived by his parents, Eugene Hudson of Salem and Gladys (Lane) Bolton of Keizer; his identical twin brother Ron Hudson and brother Bill Hudson of Keizer; and grandchildren, Chelsea and Cliff Herrmann. He also had numerous stepchildren, nieces, nephews and grandchildren.

Tribal Housing sets emergency preparedness event

The Grand Ronde Tribal Housing Authority will be holding an emergency preparedness event dubbed "R U Ready for the Zombie Apocalypse?" at 5:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov 1, in the Tribal Community Center.

The event, presented by the American Red Cross, will cover how to prepare for surviving a severe winter storm, earthquake or highly unlikely invasion of flesh-eating zombies. There also will be a Kids' Corner with activities and prizes.

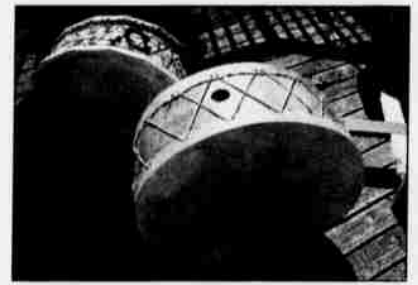

The informational event is open to Tribal housing residents and Grand Ronde community members.

Chili and cornbread will be served.
