

Grand Ronde Canoe Family member Kyoni Mercier sings during an assembly for the elementary, middle and high school students at the Willamina High School gymnasium on Tuesday, Nov. 27. The Tribe's Education and Cultural Resources departments participated in the program that honored November being National Native American Heritage Month.

Cultural assembly

Audrey Mercier, third from right, participates with Willamina students in a "Heron Song" fun dance during an assembly held in honor of November being National Native American Heritage Month at the Willamina High School gymnasium on Tuesday, Nov. 27.

Grand Ronde youth demonstrate powwow dancing for Willamina students during an assembly held in honor of November being National Native American Heritage Month at the Willamina High School gymnasium on Tuesday, Nov. 27.

Grand Ronde and Veterans' Royalty girls lead a group of Grand Ronde youth around Willamina High School gymnasium during an assembly in honor of November being National Native American Heritage Month on Tuesday, Nov. 27.

Photos by Michelle Alaimo

Visit the Tribe's facebook
 page to see more photos