

2008 – The Tribe's Grand Floral Parade entry "Romancing Rose" received the Rose Festival Court Award for the entry best exemplifying community or civic involvement and pride. The float told the story of Tribal member Deitrich Peter's courtship of his wife, Rose, who is a member of the Shoshone Tribe.

2003 – Luhui Whitebear joined the Tribe as the new scholarship coordinator for the Education Department. Originally from Santa Barbara, Calif., she is a member of the coastal band of Chumash Indians.

1998 – The Tribe's entry in the Rose Festival Grand Floral Parade received the grand prize for best float over 35 feet long. It featured a storyteller bedecked for a powwow in Northwest regalia and crowned with a headpiece epitomizing the cunning wisdom of Coyote.

1993 – Tribal Council adopted a Divorce Ordinance on June 16. More information was available by contacting Jackie Whisler.

1988 – John and Eula Petite were featured for their 51st year of togetherness. Eula said that their mutual respect for each other, their sense of humor, similar interests and their religion kept them together for more than half a century.

Notice to Tribal member construction, contractors and workers

The Tribe is developing a list of Tribal member-owned construction companies and workers with road construction experience who are interested in performing construction work for the Tribe and on Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT) projects.

The Tribe is negotiating a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with ODOT to provide hiring preference to Tribal members, those with construction companies and individuals with construction experience to work on various ODOT road construction projects.

Tribal members seeking employment in the construction field should contact Steve O'Harra by calling 503-879-2113 or via e-mail steve.oharra@grandronde.org.

Please provide your name, enrollment number, phone number, type of work sought (unskilled laborer, concrete, paving, etc.) and any special skills or experience you may have.

The Human Resources Department will assemble a list of interested persons that will be distributed to ODOT. This list also will be distributed to general contractors selected to do work on Tribal projects.

Construction companies that are owned by Tribal members and wish to be included on this list are requested to call John Mercier at 503-879-2400 or via e-mail john.mercier@grandronde.org.

Please indicate your business name, address, telephone, fax, specialty, name(s) of Tribal members employed and roll number if available. ■
