

Make Parenting a Pleasure training set

The seven-week Make Parenting a Pleasure training will be held beginning Monday, Oct. 7, in the Tribal Community Center from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

The training is free and includes child care and meals.

Participants will share parenting experiences, increase their knowledge of early child development, discover a broader range of positive and effective parenting and coping alternatives, learn about community resources and create a parenting support network.

The training is sponsored by the Tribe's Children & Family Services program and Mid-Valley Parenting of Polk County.

For more information or to register, contact Amber Amouak at 503-879-2147. ■

New Mexico bound

Melisa Chandler looks at the card her Land and Culture Department co-workers made for her as they give it to her during her farewell party in Room 204 in the Governance Center on Thursday, Aug. 29. She was given the card, which was available for all employees to sign, after they gifted her with a Pendleton blanket. Chandler's last day as the Tribe's compliance technician, a position she held for two years, was Friday, Aug. 30. She is moving to New Mexico.
