Cultural Highlights

Plankhouse Celebration

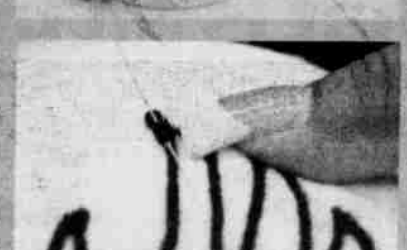

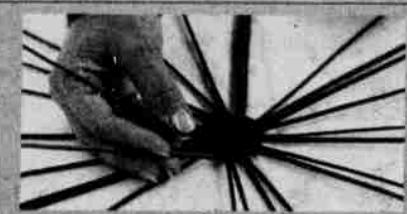

October 19, 2013 will mark the third birthday of achaf-hammi, the Tribe's Plankhouse. After relocation to the reservation, we were not allowed to have a longhouse or hold traditional ceremonies (at least not openly). Please join us to celebrate not only three years with our plankhouse, but the return of our ceremonies. The celebration will begin at 1:00 pm (doors open at noon) with dinner at 5:00 pm. There will be visitors from Chilliwack and Vancouver, British Columbia, as well as visitors from tribes in Puget Sound, Northern California, and Oregon. At the celebration there will be guest speakers, Canoe Family dancing as well as some tribes sharing feather dancing and brush dancing. At 7:00 pm there will be a giveaway to honor the people who have come here to join in our celebration.

Cultural Class Videos

The Land and Culture Department is pleased to present the updated Culture page on the Tribe's website (<http://www.grandronde.org/culture/>). There you will find information regarding culture classes, a link to programs, and highlights of the Tribe's cultural activities. Visit often for up-to-date information!

We are especially excited to announce the completion of our first three culture class videos, which are posted on the Culture Page as well. These videos were produced to be a supplement to our in-person culture classes and offer an opportunity for Tribal Members who are not able to come to regular classes in Portland, Eugene, or Grand Ronde. In working with Tribal Council, our plan is to complete four new culture class per year and post them online for the membership.
