Kenny, that day I never knew it would be my last coaster ride with you. The day you left I never knew a big part of me went with you. Nobody knew our relationship like me and you with all the struggles but we made it through. You know me Dear I did what most people wouldn't think to do. I recorded the cell phone message you had on your phone and when I think I can't get through, I pick up my phone and listen to you. In my heart it's like calling heaven. You see me cry for you, I try not to. I think it's because a big part of me went with you. Someday it will be just us 2, till then remember Dear next year would be our 25th year.

Happy birthday dear Kenny Erickson
