Scholarships available

The Oregon Community Foundation (OCF) annually awards more than $7 million in scholarships to Oregon students through our statewide scholarship program. Two of these scholarship programs are targeted specifically to Native American students.

VERL AND DOROTHY MILLER NATIVE AMERICAN SCHOLARSHIP

Eligible students include Native American residents of Oregon attending or planning to attend an accredited trade or vocational school in Oregon. The awards are for $1,500-$3,000/year - students may apply and compete for the scholarship for up to four years.

HOWARD VOLLUM AMERICAN INDIAN SCHOLARSHIP

Eligible students include Native American residents of Clackamas, Multnomah, Washington and Clark counties seeking post-secondary education or training in science, technology, engineering or mathematics. The awards are for $3,000/year for up to five years of undergraduate study and two years of graduate study.

Criteria for both scholarships:

- * Participation in school or community activities;
- * Personal accomplishments or achievements;
- * Preference given to students who have a demonstrated commitment to and involvement in the Native American community;
- * Open to students with a certification of Tribal enrollment or descendants of enrolled members.

How to apply: Applications and instructions are available on OCF's Web site at www.oregoncf.org/receive/scholarships/scholarship-opportunities.

Deadline: Scholarship applications are due March 1 for the next academic year.

Questions: Call OCF scholarship staff at 503-227-6846 or e-mail mchee@oregoncf.org.

LIBRARY HOURS:

Monday – Friday: 9 A.M. – 6 P.M.
 (closed Monday - Friday: noon – 1 P.M.)
 Saturday: 10 A.M. – 2 P.M.

Movie Night: First Thursday of the month at 4 p.m. Please note the time change from the previous movie series. This series of movies features General-PG, family type movies. Youth ages 12 and under must be accompanied by an adult older than 18 years of age.

- March 6: "Percy Jackson the Lightning Thief"
- April 3: "Hotel For Dogs"

"Get Fired Up for Reading": The Reading Incentive Program started Jan. 15 and ends Feb. 28. The library aligns this program with the Chinese New Year, which is Jan. 31 through Feb. 14 in 2014. For each book that is read we will add a dragon scale that states the book title and reader's name. The more books that are read, the bigger our dragon will be. In 2013, readers read 211 books. Let's try to break that record in 2014! This program is for all ages. We only have 20 books read so far.

Battle of the Books: Local school districts compete in the Battle of the Books program each year. All students participating must be in grades 3-5, 6-8 or 9-12 for the current school year. The Tribal Library has many of the "Battle" books listed for Oregon available for check out. Some of the titles for the 3-5 Division are "Birchbark House" by Louise Erdrich, "Clementine" by Sara Pennypacker and "Dear Mr. Henshaw" by Beverly Cleary. In the 6-8 Division, we have "Bigger Than a Bread Box" by Laurel Snyder, "Million Dollar Throw" by Mike Lupica and "TimeRiders" by Alex Scarrow. For the 9-12 Division, we have "Grave Mercy" by Robin LaFevers, "Daughters of Smoke & Bone" by Laini Taylor and "Everybody Sees the Ants" by A.S. King.

REMINDER: The library no longer accepts: VHS movies; cassette tapes (books/music); and/or paperback books (mass-produced). Donated items must be clean and in good condition. Thank you.

The Tribal Library is a CCRLS Circulation Site: Use your Chemeketa Cooperative Regional Library Services library card to perform electronic holds on resources in the 18 partner libraries and items will be couriered here for check out and can be checked back in here as well.

Inter-Library Loan services: The Tribal Library partners with Oregon State Library to offer "library to library" inter-library loan services. By completing the inter-library loan form, library patrons may request items from the Oregon State Library collection. OSL lending policies apply for return of items.
