

Bond committee members to canvas Tribal housing

Members of the Strong Schools-Strong Community Bond Committee will be going door-to-door in Tribal and Elder housing on Friday, April 18, and Monday, April 21, for the purposes of answering questions about the upcoming Willamina School District Bond Measure 36-162 and to assist Tribal members in registering to vote in state and county elections.

Bond committee members will be in the neighborhood between the hours of 5 and 7 p.m. both days. ■

Adult Foster Program

The Tribe's Adult Foster Care lodges are committed to offering quality care to our Elders and helping them remain as independent as possible, while providing the personalized assistance they need. At our lodges, a wide range of services is available in a comfortable setting where privacy is respected and maximum independence is supported. For information, contact the Adult Foster Program Director at 503-879-1694. ■

Emergency Management meet and greet held

Jamie Baxter, Tribal Emergency Operations coordinator, talks about items that should be in an emergency survival supply kit during an Emergency Management meet and greet held in the Tribal Community Center on Monday, April 7. Anyone who would like to be trained in emergency preparedness in case of a disaster in the local community should contact Baxter at 503-879-1827 or jamie.baxter@grandronde.org.

From left, Juan Sifuentez, Advanced Security supervisor, Nadine Burt, Behavioral Health secretary, Tribal Elder Alan Ham and Pattie Mercier, Tribal Risk Management, look over checklist folders that would be used in an emergency response situation during an Emergency Management meet and greet held in the Tribal Community Center on Monday, April 7.

Help needed identifying plots

The Facilities Department is asking for help identifying veteran's plots.

If your family member's or friend's plot is a veteran and we do not have a veteran's flag present on holidays, please inform us.

We will do our best to mark all plots of veterans. Contact Adam Leno at 503-879-5525 or adam.leno@grandronde.org. ■
