2004 – The Tribe’s Cultural Resources Department, in cooperation with the Mission Mill Association, collaborated on the reprinting of Dr. Harold Mackey’s book “The Kalapuyans.” The book was considered one of the most accessible resources for information and history on the Native peoples who lived in the Willamette Valley. The book had been out of print for 30 years.

1999 – Direlle Calica, a member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, became the second recipient of the Mark O. Hatfield Congressional Fellowship sponsored by Spirit Mountain Community Fund. “For us it’s another feather in our cap for her to go to Washington, D.C., and have our concerns heard,” said Tribal Council Chair Kathryn Harrison.

1994 – Smoke Signals editor Tracy Olson was one of 10 minority journalists to have won scholarships to the 18th annual Investigative Reporters and Editors National Conference, which was held June 16-18 in St. Louis, Mo.

1989 – The Tribe held its first timber sale from the Reservation. The “Western Skies” sale sold for $379/mbf and was purchased by Hampton Lumber. The sale had a total value of approximately $1.3 million.

1984 – Diana and Ron Stogsdill were thanked for donating carpeting for the Depot Office and Penna Mobile Homes was thanked for its assistance in obtaining carpeting for the office.

Yesteryears is a look back at Tribal history in five-year increments through the pages of Smoke Signals.

OR 130 bridge work continuing

PACIFIC CITY – Work started April 1 on painting three heavily rusted bridges over the Nestucca River on OR 130 (Little Nestucca Highway), between state Highway 22 and U.S. 101. Painting is expected to take approximately two months per bridge.

The $1.5 million project requires complete closure of the bridges, one at a time, beginning with the western-most span at milepost 5.11. Local travelers and residents may access their properties along OR 130, up to either side of the affected bridge.

Signs will be placed to indicate which bridge is closed and advance notification and detour signs will be provided to help motorists plan for added travel time and alternative routes.

The protective paint on the bridges, which were built in the early 1950s, is oxidizing and cracking, and portions of the steel trusses lack paint altogether. The repainting will keep the structures from deteriorating. The bridges have not been painted since the 1970s.
