

Letters

Dear Smoke Signals:

This letter is for the future generations. Know your rights!

The following examples of events are true, so for you the reader of this letter will be placed as though the actual events happened to you.

Example one: You have worked for the casino for four years. You have been given an opportunity to work elsewhere upon the performance and discovery of your work ethics. You have taken the proper steps with your current employer to pursue employment elsewhere.

Now, one day you're on break, talking with friends, co-workers, and another co-worker who wasn't among the group you were talking with thinks they happen to overhear something that they think Human Resources should know.

HR sets up an appointment to discuss the conversation the co-worker overheard. HR has taken it upon themselves to ban you from the casino property for life. Wrong.

Example two: You're a patient of the clinic in Grand Ronde. You receive a letter from the clinic that states a breach of your protected health information, name, date of birth, phone number, Social Security number and medical record number has occurred. Your personal information was in a file that had been left in a storage unit on campus. This unit was delivered to another Tribal office. Wrong.

Do you think your civil rights have been violated concerning these two actual events? Yes, they have!

Know your rights, know your civil rights. If you think you have been a victim, exercise your rights!

Know your rights!!!!

Au-ho.
